Street lights, paving planned near town

by Sue Nasenbony

A project of paving roads, putting in street lights and installing sidewalks along Hillside Avenue and Orchard Street could be started by next fall.

The Antioch Village Board decided Monday night in a public works committee meeting to try to undertake the project, which would include Orchard Street improvement from Toft Avenue to Hillside, and Hillside improvement from Orchard to Lake Street.

Funds for the project would either come from a special assessment or special taxing district affecting those that live in the area. Mayor Michael Haley said the village would be willing to pay for 50 percent of the improvement costs in the area, which has been zoned for business.

Trustees Edgar Simonsen and William Seemann agreed that the project should be done, but that the board "may have to do a lot of convincing" that the project is for the good of the community.

Trustee Don Amundsen added that the funds for the project would have to be allocated carefully because some of the village money had been committed to deepening and widening Sequoia Creek.

A public hearing on the project will be set at this week's village board meeting Monday night.

Village Engineer Frank Angelotti added that if the project contract was approved, construction could start this fall with the streets, sidewalks and lighting completed by spring of 1980.

ALSO AT THE MEETING, a representative from Standard Power in Atlanta, Ga. spoke to the board about a computerized 24-hour monitor of lift stations for the village.

He explained that the system would allow the village to "monitor remote sites, allow communication back with the systems and prevent the embarrassment of a flood in the lift stations."

The intricate system had features, which would indicate: power off and on, high and low water, pump failure or door open — almost any description of a problem at a lift station.

Supt. of Public Works Walt Shepard said the 17 stations in Antioch are now monitored by a red light "and we don't receive a call until someone sees it or we get a back up."

Fire Chief Todd Mapletorpe added that the system "could be implemented on security. I can see many uses for it."

The cost of the system would depend on the number of units involved, the representative said. Village board members asked the village engineer to pursue the feasibility of the system and to come up with an estimate of the cost.

ALSO AT THE MEETING, Mapletorpe told the board that he had inspected the level of barium in the village water and found it to be "practically nonexistent," so residents should not worry about the chemical that had been found dangerous in the water level of other communities.

Also, the board discussed assessing a trunk line improvement charge for the sewers connected to Main Street to help pay to replace the sewers in the event of an expansion.

This trunk line improvement charge will be further discussed at this Monday's village board meeting, board members said.

Blaze engulfs house but children escape unharmed

Four children escaped a fire in their home late Sunday morning in Channel Lake before a blaze that started in the kitchen engulfed the house.

Officials from the Antioch Fire Prevention Bureau reported that the home was that of Patrick Naughton on Lake Avenue in Channel Lake.

Naughton's oldest son, a student at St. Peter's Grade School, called the Antioch

Fire Department at the 911 emergency number when he was first alerted of the fire. He said he had learned this procedure at school.

Fire officials said damage to the home was extensive and minor damage was done to a house under construction only a few feet away.

Antioch was assisted by the Fox Lake, Trevor and Silver Lake fire departments.

For related photos, see page 20.

In another incident Saturday afternoon, Antioch's firefighters extinguished a fire that started on a couch in the home of S. Lindberg of Park Avenue in Antioch.

Fire officials said the fire was allegedly the result of careless use of smoking materials. Damage was limited to the couch.

Also, firefighters were called to extinguish a car fire in the parking lot adjacent to the Limerick Lounge at 4 a.m. Saturday.

Deadline set to protest new assessment

The last day to file a protest for the new Antioch Township assessment is March 21, township officials announced.

Residents may pick up these Board of Review complaint forms at the Antioch Township Office on Highway 173 during regular business hours.

Bud Holtz, Antioch Township assessor, said he wants the taxpayers not to confuse the September cut-off date with September of 1979.

The September mentioned on the Change of Assessment Notice refers to September 1978.

Therefore, March 21, 1979 is the last day to file an assessment protest.

MAKING SOME OF the final arrangements for the St. Peter's VIP dinner-dance this March 31 are co-chairmen Paul Maginot and William Barr of the Barr Funeral Home. A limited number of tickets are available for the 11th annual event, which will honor Lloyd "Red" Murrie, former Antioch Township Supervisor. Cost of the dinner-dance is $9 per person and tickets can be purchased at St. Peter's Rectory on Lake Street or at any of the three financial institutions in town. (News photo by Sue Nasenbeny)

Sheriff Brown: Drug traffic booming in US

Lake County Sheriff Tom Brown and his chief narcotic agent presented a program on "Dope and the Community" at the monthly meeting of the Antioch Republican Club recently.

They said narcotics in one form or another is prevalent throughout Lake County. Traffic in illicit drugs has become the third largest income producing business in the United States today, they added.

The different types of marijuana and the guises under which it is sold plus heroin and an assortment of pills were shown to all those attending.

The Sheriff said there had been 23 drug arrests since December by his office.

Of these, he contended that approximately two-thirds of the offenders are appointed to public defender at Lake County Citizen's expense.

How this is done, he explained, is that the offender is presented to the court and states he has no means of support.

Because of his illicit operation, he shows no income and counsel is appointed for him by the court.

The Sheriff said he felt the judicial system is lax in this matter and much improvement is needed in our judicial system.

Rural Sub carrier needed at Post Office

The Antioch Post Office is presently accepting applications for the position of Rural Sub Carrier. Application forms may be obtained at the Antioch Post Office between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily or Saturday from 8 a.m. to noon.

An exam will be scheduled when sufficient applications have been received.

It is required for a rural sub to furnish their own car for delivery of the route the Post Office explained.

The applicant must also successfully pass a physical exam.

He or she will receive on-the-job training and serve the route as needed.

Several positions are available at the present time. All applicants must be 18 years of age or older.

BOYD

For CLC board:

Lorang
would like to bring experience

Anne Lorang, a resident of Lake Villa township for the past 12 years, said she would like to "bring in my own individual experience" if elected to the College of Lake County Board of Trustees.

Lorang is running for a three-year term on the board in the Saturday, April 14 election.

Six petitioners are seeking two expiring terms on the College of Lake County board, she explained.

"I would like to see the education being provided by the College continue to be one of quality," Lorang added. She said her experience in working with colleges previously should help her as a board member.

Lorang was born and raised in New York and attended college there, receiving a degree in business administration and psychology.

Previous to taking up residence with her husband, John, in Lake County, she was assistant training manager at McGraw Hill Publishing Company in New York City and chief business officer and member of the administrative board at Marymount College in Tarrytown, N.Y.

She and her husband John, who is a physician at the Orchard Medical Center in Antioch, have raised seven children, four who attend high school, two who are in college and one who is married and living in Lake Villa. She also has one grandchild.

Clerk embarks on registration campaign

by GRACE MARY STERN

The County Clerk's office has embarked on an intensive Let's Get 'Em Registered' campaign throughout Lake County.

Heretofore we have had Voter Registrars in most of the township offices, most of the city or village halls and an occasional high school, now we are shooting for all the township and village halls and every high school and public library.

In addition, we have sent a letter to every bank and Savings and Loan, soliciting their cooperation in establishing their premises as a place of voter registration.

The letter went out two weeks ago and by last Wednesday night, more than 20 banks had responded to declare themselves on the team. That kind of cooperation will have an effect.

In 1979 the small "d" democratic system is suffering from a sort of paralysis of morale — no one is willing to commit their trust to any administration, to any officeholder or to any political party.

It is a time of such widespread cynicism and disenchantment with the process that each election turns out fewer participants than the one before.

And those who do come out to the Polling Place seem to be there in a fever of outrage, eager to "throw the bums out" rather than to elect an outstanding candidate.

Like all generalizations, that one is faulty. There are, as there have always been, a number of caring, responsible citizens, who go to the polls every time there is an election and who bother to education themselves before they go.

But that number is growing smaller. As it shrinks, the number of critics and depreciators seems to increase.

Obviously we need to restore public faith in public service — faith in government. And the way to do that is to convince each voter individually that he or she can make a difference.

That happens to be true. Each vote does indeed make a difference. Ask Jane Byrne. The ripples that will go out from that astonishing mini-revolution cannot now be calculated, but they will certainly cause change of one sort or another.

"Would You Say This Marks The Beginning Of A New Era In U.S. Diplomacy Or The Beginning Of An Old One?"

New emergency aid to provide food supplies

A new emergency aid service has been established and is presently in operation in Antioch and Lake Villa townships.

The Community Food Barrel is a volunteer organization and its sole function is to provide temporary emergency food supplies — no questions, no red tape, no judgments, no denials.

If a person is hungry, for whatever reason, the Food Barrel will supply enough food to last four to five days.

The idea for the Community Food Barrel was conceived about a year and a half ago. Since that time, members have put in much time and energy to make it a reality.

The response from the community has been very good, sponsors said. Food to stock the pantry has been collected by local civic organizations, schools and churches.

Although in operation only a short time, several people have already been helped.

Anyone in need of this service should contact the Antioch police department, village hall or any local church.

Any organization interested in additional information or wishing to help can contact the Community Food Barrel at P.O. Box 557, Antioch, Ill.

Dog sled race challenges Gardino

Most people might read and wonder about it, and some even go so far as to dream about doing it. But Lee Gardino, formerly of Antioch, had that special ingredient it takes to go ahead with it.

The Iditarod — it's 1,049 miles from Anchorage to Nome, Alaska via a trail sled dog race. The journey last year was won in 14 days, 18 hours and 52 minutes.

Gardino said he wanted to do it "just to do it. I've been interested in it for a long time."

Gardino, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gardino of Antioch, is a pipe-fitter in Chugiak, Alaska and lives there with his wife Mary Ellen, (Osmond) who formerly taught at the Grass Lake School.

He quit his position last December to train for the race and according to some reports, is a relative newcomer to dog-mushing.

Some members of his dog team had more experience than he in the race which began Feb. 24 in Anchorage's Mulcahy Park.

One of his dogs has been a part of the famed race before and some of his other dogs have been owned by former Iditarod mushers.

Gardino invested a lot of time and effort into the race, as did his wife Mary. Five sponsors made it financially possible for him to realize his dream, including the firm for which he works.

Mary made 700 booties for the dogs when trail conditions called for them. Food for both Gardino and the dogs was shipped in at various checkpoints along the way.

The couple readied their 20 dogs for the race, but Mary reported in letters sent

Immunization clinic for children set

A combined immunization, hearing and vision screening clinic for children will be held Wednesday, March 21, at the St. Peter's Church Hall, 557 Lake Street, Antioch.

This free clinic will be conducted by the Lake County Health Department and will be open from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Appointments are not necessary and a parent or guardian must accompany all children.

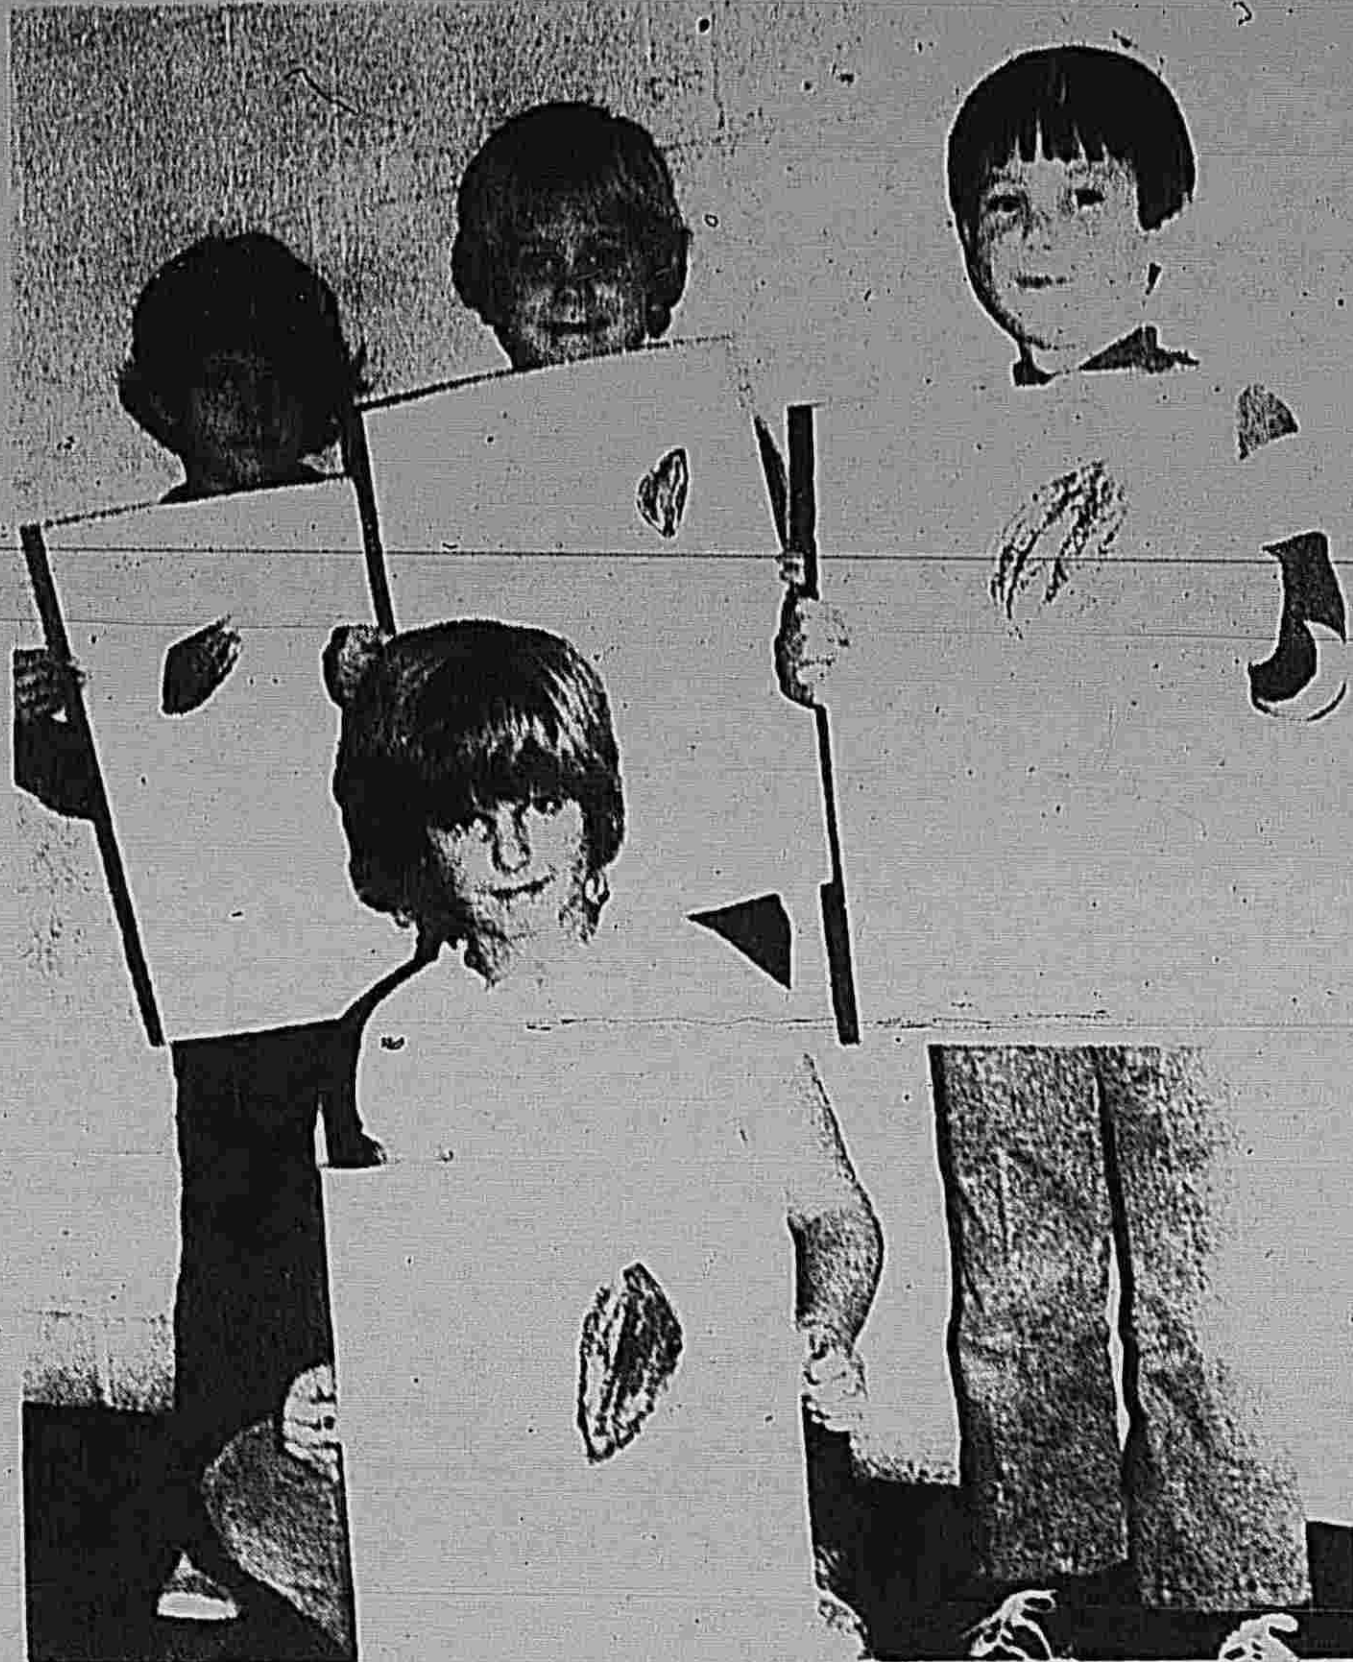

This is an excellent opportunity for parents to have their children immunized against Polio, D.P.T. (Diphtheria, Whooping Cough, Tetanus) Measles, Mumps, Rubella (German Measles) and to determine if their hearing and vision are normal.

All pre-school and school age children are welcome.

Parents are asked to bring their children's past immunization records with them so that current immunization needs can be determined.

If the child has an immunization letter from the school nurse, it should also be brought to the clinic.

11 D.E. students attend state conference

The Distributive Education Students (D.E.) of Antioch High School went to the O'Hare Ramada Inn for the State Conference recently along with 150 other schools throughout the state.

Each of the 11 students competed in different areas of competences relating to each of their individual jobs.

The students that participated in the conference were: Melody Aronson, Ray Burnett, Tina Dorich, Sandy Kufuss, Paulette Kreulack, Sue Lass, Bryan Lewkowicz, Sandy Motely, Heidi Niemann, Ray Scarpelli and Debbie Stone.

Each student competed on his or her individual level, either master employee or owner manager.

The tests included role plays in the presence of a judge, written tests and case problems.

The coordinator, Keith Ewert and the alumni, Melanie Terri, Terry Marsala, Rich Vanderwerker and John Burnett helped the students prepare and study for their tests.

After hours of testing and determination, the students received awards for their accomplishments.

Tina Dorich received two firsts and a third placement in Apparel and Accessories and received a first place trophy in state overall.

Bryan Lewkowicz, Paulette Kreulack and Sandy Motley placed in the top eight of each of their individual categories.

The other seven students received Distributive Education Clubs of Illinois certificates for their above average test scores on their categories.

Afterwards the students enjoyed an evening of a banquet dinner and a disco dance. Overall, students said they had a valuable learning experience in retailing business education.

Applause! Applause!

This town is too active to put a halt to my column, so here we go again.

ANTIOCH FAMILY Shoes (formerly DeGraff's) has opened the doors at their new location at 907 Main St.

You can't help but think of spring as you pass their display window and see all the fantastic sandals and handbags that will complement any spring wardrobe.

DeGRAFF'S STORE at 925 Main St. wasn't vacant long, though. Dave Zickus opened The Stitchery there last week.

The attractive craft store carries a variety of kits for every hobby plus individual yarns and accessories.

It's a definite stop for any craftsman. Besides, it's sure good to see Dave back in town.

CONGRATULATIONS to Pat and Audrey of Guys & Dolls Hairdressers on their third anniversary.

I remember when the girls first opened their shop, and they've come a long way.

They will be celebrating all week. So don't forget to register for their drawing. Several great hair products will be given away.

IF YOU HAVEN'T met Dixie Sparks from the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, you're in for a pleasant surprise.

Dixie is loaded with enthusiasm and drive, and we wish her luck in her new position as executive secretary.

STEVE AND RANDY Sodman are busy preparing for the opening of their new grocery store, Foods Unlimited. The store is next door to their dad's Citgo Service Station at North and Main Streets, and the opening is scheduled for this Friday.

The brothers did some adjusting to get everything to come together, and of course, we can't forget their good friend, Weasel, who helped smooth some rough water.

SATURDAY, everyone will boast of a little Irish blood. The corned beef and cabbage will abound throughout town with green beer and Shamrock shakes quenching your thirst.

And as every Irishman would say,

"Top of the Morn' to you, from the bottom of me heart."

CHILDREN FROM PEPPERMINT Stick preschool in Antioch carefully pet a baby Siberian tiger that was brought there through the courtesy of Chrysler Corporation and Grass Lake Marina in Antioch. Clem Haley, owner of Grass Lake Marina, arranged for the tiger's appearance. Thain Clark of Chrysler Marine Wildlife Heritage Foundation kept the tiger by his side while children eagerly filed past to have a chance to pet the animal, named 'Romulus.' Only 200 of that sort of tiger currently exist in the world. (News photo by Sue Nasenbeny)

He is the son of Michael and Sandy Ditzig of Grass Lake.

Millburn De Molay has announced plans for De Molay week, March 11 to 17 kicking off with church service at Millburn Congregational Church on March 11 followed by a pot luck dinner for all the members and their families.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

HEAR TELL there was a spectacular auction at the Antioch Auction Center last week. Items from former Gov. Otto Kerner's estate were up for bidding, with dolls, furniture, lamps, dishes and bedroom sets available.

Some items, such as a marble statue, went for $200 right away. Haven't seen that sort of bidding in awhile. And I haven't seen that huge of a crowd in awhile either. Auctioneer Herman Behm did an excellent job, as usual.

ANYONE INTERESTED in the stock market and learning about it is invited to attend the regular monthly meeting of the Antioch Investment Club. It will be held at 8 p.m. tonight at the State Bank of Antioch.

President Helen DeVries told me to tell you, for further information call 395-3975 or 395-2192. It should be interesting!

DIXIE SPARKS, new executive secretary at the Chamber of Commerce and Industry, told me to remind all of you not to delay who are interested in reserving a space at the annual Art Fair to be held this July 8.

It may seem like a long time away ... especially with snow on the ground still ... but she said response for the fair is already "quite a flurry" of activity. Call her at the Chamber office if you are interested.

WHAT GREAT GOING!! Our varsity Sequoits grabbed another regional title, their fifth in a row. Congratulations to all the players, coaches, cheerleaders, pom-pom girls, fans and parents who helped make the team such winners.

DON'T MISS "I Do! I Do!" this weekend at the United Methodist church. Ken and Betty Smouse make up the cast of a story of life, love and marriage and I caught a sneak preview. It's really good.

SO SORRY TO hear that Julie Portalski is in Highland Park Hospital. It's just for tests, so hopefully she won't be in long. Hi, Julie! Hope you're doing well.

DOROTHY AND JOHN McAVOY recently became grandparents for the first time! On March 4, grandson Shawn Patrick was born — what a nice surprise for St. Patrick's Day! Shawn's parents are John and Joan McAvoy and they live in Omaha, Neb.

HAPPY 14 candles to Brad Herbst on March 19th! Only two more years and you'll get your driver's license, Brad!

St. Peter's Open House explored

Parents, parishioners and friends of St. Peter's were welcomed by the faculty and students of St. Peter School to an interesting and informative Open House last Sunday, school officials said.

Children accompanied their parents throughout hallways and classrooms pointing out unusual displays and offering interesting commentaries on their work.

All subject areas were covered in a variety of innovative and provocative ways.

Included among the presentations from the junior high department were examples of practical math problems, book reports, pyramid poetry, essay sheets on the "Causes of the Revolution," shadow boxes illustrating stories, Scott Sculpture, science posters, essays and display relating to the Old Testament, and collages depicting the commandment honoring parents.

"The Wonderful World of Paul Bunyan" was presented with a huge mural and written work by the fourth grade English class.

Many samples of work done in the primary department was displayed on bulletin boards and in student's individual folders.

The second grade presented an array of illustrated "wish" stories, while the first grade displayed an engaging series of "Who Am I?" stories. Shadow boxes with accompanying written work was cleverly done by third graders.

In addition to the Open House activities, registration for the 1979-80 school year was held in the gym.

The St. Peter's Women's Club, the Volunteer Mothers'

Group and school board members provided refreshments and hospitality.

The many weeks of planning and preparation by the faculty and participation of the students was met with an appreciation response from parents and visitors alike.

KEN AND BETTY Smouse rehearse for their production of "I Do! I Do!" to open this weekend at the United Methodist Church of Antioch at 8 p.m. this Friday in Wesley Hall. The family production is part of the church's celebration of their centennial year.

Sentimental musical 'I Do! I Do!' to open

"A man and a woman are meant for each other, are meant for each other as husband and wife. From this moment forward, I promise to love thee; I promise to love thee the rest of my life. Together forever, forever together ..."

A very special "happening" is unfolding at the United Methodist Church of Antioch in the form of a bright and sentimental musical "I Do! I Do!" which will be presented at 8 p.m. this Friday, Saturday and Sunday — one weekend only!

The Fool's Players, which was formed several years ago and presented "Jesus Christ Superstar," "Amahl and the Night Visitors," and last year's "Godspell," is producing "I Do! I Do!" with Ken Smouse directing, Bryan Sorensen as staging director, and Rev. Stephen Williams as production manager.

Ken and Betty Smouse of Antioch and members of the Methodist Church are starring as Michael and Agnes, and this is the story of 50 years of marriage.

It touches on love, quarrels, birth of children, children growing up, identity crises, but most of all love.

Since this is the 100th year of the United Methodist Church, the Fool's Players said they feel this production is an especially fitting "happening" during the celebration. Tracy Kiederlen on piano, Brian Kovach on bass, and Karl Heilgeist on drums complete the production.

Tickets are $3 for adults, $1.50 for students and senior citizens, and are available at the banks in Antioch, the Antioch-Township Library, and will be sold at the door. Reservations can be made by calling 395-6006 and 395-1259.

Kick up your heels from 9:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. to some great music provided by the Sebesta Brothers.

There will be raffles for those of you with a bit of sportin' blood in your veins. It's sure to be a great night of fun even if you're not an Irishman.

A modest donation of $3.50 per person for all Moose members and their guest will assure this.

So give yourself a treat and get over to the Antioch Moose Lodge on Main St. in Antioch, for your St. Paddy's-Day festivities. See you there!

Service Is Best And Cars Cost Less

A 71-INCH sailfish, weighing 23 pounds, was caught by Joe Patrovsky of Antioch while fishing in the Caribbean last month.

Joe was using a 20-pound test line when the fish bit. It was brought in after a half-hour fight.

Joe, fishing with John and Joyce Wagner of Spring Valley Country Club, who are vacationing in Florida, caught a black fin tuna the same day.

"We were fishing on the Caribbean side of St. Thomas Island," Joyce said, "and at one time we had two sailfish on at one time. What an exciting day."

Weatherproof energy.

In winter. For the past several winters, many parts of the country have experienced energy shortages. The oil and coal needed to make electricity couldn't be delivered. Rivers were frozen. Stockpiled coal was frozen solid. The machinery to move coal was frozen.

As fuel ran low, electricity had to be rationed. Plants and schools were closed. People were laid off. Shivering became the national pastime. But not in northern Illinois.

Commonwealth Edison electricity is made mostly from abundant coal and uranium. That helps to conserve the scarce fuels, oil and natural gas.

It wasn't luck that got us through those winters. It was nuclear power. Over 40% of the electricity we make comes from nuclear fuel. Because no matter how much it snows or how cold it gets, nuclear fuel is available—weatherproof. Enough uranium to provide all the electricity we need for an Illinois winter can be stored in a one-car garage.

In summer. Nuclear power gives us the reliability we need to respond to summer peak demands without brownouts. In the last decade, when growth of air conditioning helped increase demand for electricity more than 50%, Edison's nuclear stations had an unbroken record of summer availability.

And nuclear power is today's great energy bargain. It costs about a penny a kilowatt hour less than coal and two to three cents less than oil. If we'd replaced our uranium with low sulphur western coal in 1977, it would have cost an extra $280,000,000 in fuel expense. Oil or gas would have driven the cost up to over one-half billion dollars. Instead, the nuclear fuel we used, the equivalent of 47,000,000 barrels of oil, saved over 10% on your electric bill.

With our strong nuclear capability, we're ready for the weather. Let it snow. Let it sizzle.

Basketball contest deadline is tonight

The last Antioch News basketball contest of the season has an early deadline.

It's tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30.

That's when Antioch High's Sequoits play Rockford East in the sectional tournament at Rock Valley Junior College, near Rockford.

BE SURE TO fill out the blank in today's paper and get it to our office, in our mailbox, or postmarked by 7:30 tonight.

As usual, $30 in prizes await the three top forecasters.

KATHY SODER WON the $15 first prize in last week's contest when she predicted Antioch would beat Round Lake by 23 points in the regional tournament at Fox Lake. Antioch won by 24 — so Kathy will be sent a $15 check, courtesy of Pedersen Bros. Implement Co.

Second prize, $10 from Bob's Septic and Cement Service, goes to Shirley Gutowski, who picked Antioch over Round Lake by 22 points. (Shirley had faith in the Sequoits because she knew her son, Dave, would help them win the regional championship.)

THERE WAS A TIE for third between Kelly Geist and Vinnie Doc Casella, each predicting a 21-point win over Round Lake. But, in the tie-breaker, Kelly accurately forecast a victory for Antioch over Grant, while Vinnie picked Grant.

Antioch triumphed by one point, so Kelly will receive $5 from Thelen's Sand and Gravel Company.

All checks will be in the mail within a week.

4-H Sequoia Warriors meet

A 4-H meeting of the Sequoia Warriors was held last week with talks on football, iceless hockey, models and dollhouses featured.

President Mike Hamlin called the meeting to order at the First National Bank of Antioch.

Lindy Woods gave a talk on football. David Hall was talked about iceless hockey. Jeff Van Patten spoke on models which he built and Tammy Eder talked about dollhouses.

A 4-H Bowl Off was held March 1 with a roller skating party planned for March 29 in Waukegan. A trip to the AMC plant and fire station is also planned.

A summer camp for 4-Hers will be held the week of July 2, it was announced.

The group's next meeting will be held April 5. It is Achievement Night and the public is welcome to attend at 7:30 p.m. in the First National Bank of Antioch.

NERVE-WRACKING TENSION was the mood that prevailed as Antioch beat Grant 56-55 for the regional basketball championship. Cheerleader Marji Allen reflected that tension as the game went down to the final second. (News photo by Andy Dugenske.)

Sequoits win thriller, wear regional crown

Antioch High's basketball team has a 13-13 record after 26 games and if that doesn't spell success — well — will you accept another regional championship?

The Sequoits and most of their fans were more than satisfied last Friday when they upset Grant's Bulldogs 56-55 in the regional title game at Fox Lake.

Even though both teams had 8-6 records in the conference, it was an upset because Grant had beaten Antioch by 12 and 29 points in regular-season games — and especially because the tournament was being played in Grant's gym — a notoriously-difficult arena for visiting teams.

GRANT'S COACH, Tom Maple, admitted that before the game.

"This isn't your usual gym," he said. "Other teams had trouble playing here, so I guess we should be the favorite over Antioch."

But not many people could have anticipated the near-flawless game the Sequoits played in order to beat Grant and advance to this week's sectional tournament at Rock Valley Junior College, near Rockford.

THE SECTIONAL TOURNAMENT opened Tuesday night with a game between Rockford Auburn and Hononegah. Results weren't available when this edition went to press.

Antioch plays Rockford East (fourth in the state last year) at 7:30 tonight.

Winners of the two games will return Friday night to play for the sectional championship.

Rockford East has a 22-5 record and three regulars returning from last year's state tournament team. Rockford Auburn has a 23-4 record and Hononegah is 15-11.

THE SEQUOITS NOW HAVE won the regional championship four times in the last six years.

Coach Roger Andrews called the victory over Grant last Friday "a super, magnificent effort."

"Dave Gutowski played the greatest game of his career," Andrews added. "He was just outstanding."

Gutowski fired in 21 points, besides serving in his usual role as the team's playmaker and defensive sniper.

Maple, Grant's coach, admitted that Gutowski was the difference between the two teams on this occasion. Besides the accurate jump shots from 12 to 20 feet, which gave Antioch the lead during most of the game, Gutowski's clutch free throws sealed the victory in the final minute after Grant had fought back to take a one-point lead.

Pete Ploss, Antioch's leading scorer who was named to the Northwest Suburban Conference all-star team this week, contributed 20 points to the regional championship win.

COACH ANDREWS ALSO praised "the great rebounding of Ploss, Chris Oddsen and Scott Gallagher" and "the super team play of Roger Korjenek, Gallagher and Gutowski."

Korjenek contributed 14 points, including six timely field goals from the corner, his favorite spot.

Upper Grade matmen take sectional crown

Last Saturday, the Antioch Upper Grade matmen won their sectional tourney, held at Antioch High School, and sponsored by the Illinois Wrestling Federation.

The Upper Grade placed first in the tourney with 211 points, followed by Dundee with 153 points, and Shady Lane Wrestling Club with 121 points.

Seventeen teams participated, and traveled from as far as Elgin and Batavia to compete.

The Upper Grade placed four firsts; five seconds; two thirds and two fourths.

The top two competitors will advance to the state finals, to be held at Joliet Central High School in Joliet this weekend.

Placing first for the Upper Grade were Tad DeRousse at 90 lbs., John Oelkers at 105 lbs., George Bessette at 135 lbs. and Billy Carney at 155 lbs.

Placing second were Jeff Nieze, 80; Steve Case, 95; Tim Curtis, 100, Andy Lehn, 125 and Tibor Jung, 145.

Placing third were Ken Sandrick, 65 and John Edwards, 70.

Placing fourth were Tim Prining, 170 and Calvin Knutsen, 65.

The Upper Grade, with nine wrestlers to participate in the state finals at Joliet, hopes to take a high place in the state tourney, Coach Ken Anderson said.

Sequoit wrestling club closes first season

The Sequoit Wrestling Club closed its first season of activities with this week's Illinois Kids Wrestling Federation sectional tournament.

The club was formed by the Antioch High School coaches and the Antioch Viking football program to introduce local grade school students to the "Fun and Fundamentals" of wrestling.

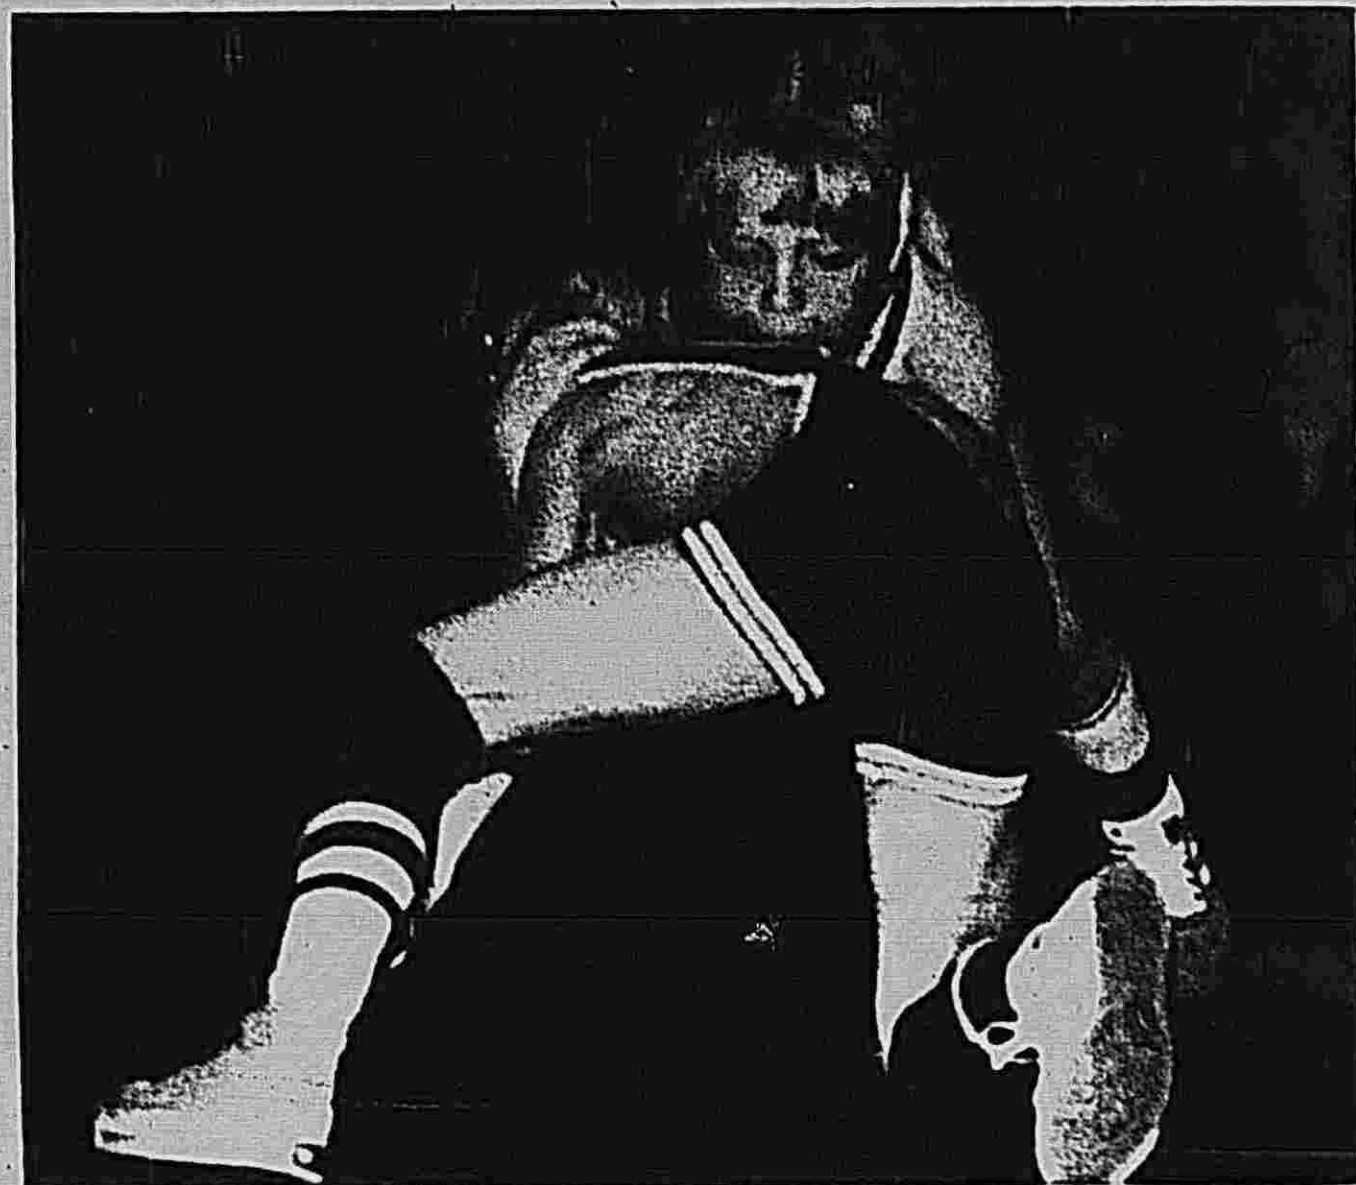

More than 50 youngsters took part in the program that extended for four weeks.

The program included instruction in wrestling and an opportunity to enter the Illinois Kids District Tournament.

Several boys placed in this tournament and advanced to the kids sectional. Next year the program will be expanded to include a tournament.

The coaching staff at Antioch High School said they would like to thank the Antioch Viking Football program for making this opportunity available to the youth of our communities.

THE ANTIOCH HIGH School wrestling staff said they would like to thank the wrestlers, mat maids and parents who made the Illinois Kids sectional, hosted by Antioch High school this week-end "The Best Run Tournament in Illinois" this year.

Gardino races Iditarod

home that they noticed a virus going around which might affect the animals.

But the day of the race, with 56 men (including a few women) entered, Gardino said he thought everything was still okay for the special race.

About halfway into the 1,049 miles of snowy trails, his lead dog, an integral factor in the race, could not take the grueling pace, probably as a result of the virus, and Gardino was forced to step out.

However, Gardino had the rare experience of participating in the race, in competing against other dog sleds in a 1,049 mile trek against the wilderness — not unlike gold seekers did more than 70 years ago.

And of that accomplishment he can be proud.

Emmons cagers undefeated

The Emmons Raiders Girls basketball team added five more victories to their record, bringing them to 9-0 with five games remaining in the season.

In conference play the Raiders continued to get and maintain the lead from the opening tip-off.

Against Spring Grove, the only team thus far to score more than 10 points against Emmons, the final score was 22-14.

Shelly Volling led the team to victory with 12 points, 10 rebounds and two steals.

Adding to the end result were team capt. Theresa Weber with four points, three assists and five steals, Karla Bolton with four points, and Lisa Davis with two points and six rebounds.

Against the quick, aggressive defense of Prince of Peace, the Raiders took a 39-10 win.

Contributing to the win were balanced scoring from the five starters and the strong rebounding of Lisa Davis and Shelly Volling each with 13, along with two points, from Carolyn Stanley when she came from the bench.

The Millburn and Lotus games were won easily by the Raiders with scores of 30-4 and 24-10 respectively.

In the Millburn game, Lisa Davis, Shelly Volling, and Karla Bolton combined for 22 points and 28 rebounds. The remaining eight points came from Theresa Weber. Joan Karczewski and fifth grader Beth Dubek.

Against Lotus the Raiders were led by Theresa Weber with eight points and three assists. Lisa Davis, Shelly Volling and Karla Bolton provided the rest of the Raiders punch with 16 points and 21 rebounds.

In the fifth game against non-conference rivals from Viking the Raiders won 26-4.

The game was handled by three of the Raiders starters, Theresa Weber had six points, five rebounds and four assists; Shelly Volling added ten points; and 14 rebounds; and Lisa Davis contributed eight points and 10 rebounds.

For the season Shelly Volling is a high scorer and rebounder. Following closely, however, are Theresa Weber who leads in assists, and Lisa Davis.

The coaches are quick to point out, however, that the team play and team spirit exhibited by all the girls is the most significant factor.

"The History of Little Goody Two-Shoes," published in 1766, is considered the earliest children's fiction.

Hypertension

[Editor's Note: This column by pharmacist Don Mendrala of Antioch Drugs is intended to be informative only and is not to be construed as medical advice.]

By Don Mendrala

As you may know, blood pressure is measured in two components: systolic and diastolic pressure. When your doctor tells you that your blood pressure is 120 over 80 mm Hg. He is referring to your systolic and diastolic blood pressure respectively.

Simply stated, systolic pressure reveals the maximum pressure; when the heartbeat is pumping blood through the arteries. Diastolic pressure indicates the minimum pressure; when the heart is between beats.

The cause of hypertension in most people is unknown. In about 10% of cases, however, a separate underlying disorder can be identified as the cause. In these instances hypertension is referred to as "secondary" whereas hypertension of unknown cause is called "primary" or "essential," since the hypertension itself is the disorder, rather than the symptom of an underlying condition.

You can have high blood pressure for years and not know it; in fact, that's the problem with this disease. There aren't any real warning signs until the disease has progressed to a more serious stage. Precisely because there are no irritating or distressing symptoms, many people with high blood pressure are often lax about following their doctor's advice to lose weight, reduce their salt intake, or even take their medication on schedule.

If you have hypertension, your doctor will determine if your condition requires drug therapy. He will also recommend other measures to help lower your blood pressure. Such as reducing salt intake, losing weight, or to stop smoking.

In general, people who are overweight are more prone to hypertension than those of average weight.

Salt acts by a variety of mechanisms to elevate blood pressure. One of these is fluid retention. This results in higher pressure in the arteries.

To date little is known about the effects of alcohol on the development of hypertension. Such snacks as licorice (in large amounts), however, can raise blood pressure and a number of medications including oral contraceptives can trigger an elevation in blood pressure.

If weight reduction, exercise, salt restriction and other measures don't lower your blood pressure, your doctor may prescribe drugs. Among those often used are the following:

1. Diuretics. By eliminating sodium diuretics help to reduce the amount of salt and water in the body and the amount of fluid in the blood.

2. Reserpine, Methylodopa (Aldomet), Clonidine (Catapres), Propranolol (Inderel).

These drugs prevent the blood vessels from constricting.
